On April 27 at 4:00 PM, the Ventspils Cultural Centre will host a concert by the mixed choir “Cantabile” and guest performers, titled “If Love Lives in the Heart”. The concert will feature performances by the choir “Cantabile”, its soloists, and students of Elena Vaseva’s vocal studio. They will present musical pieces in various languages, styles, and genres – from classical and folk music to popular stage music and rock. The audience will be treated to a diverse program about love – love for life, people, God, and the land we live on. “This concert will be a musical journey through different eras and moods, highlighting the diversity of love and its power,” says Elena Vaseva, the conductor of the choir “Cantabile.” An emotional, colorful, and captivating concert awaits—something for every heart! Ticket price – 3 EUR. Tickets are available in advance at the Ventspils Cultural Centre box office.
