Creative Rhythm Workshop “... a rushing wave rolls to the edge...” An event for families with children, where everyone is invited to make music, create rhythm and play using simple percussion instruments. Professional and child-safe Orff instruments will be available – maracas, rhythm boxes, bells, triangles and others. The event will be led by Rebeka Busule – a music teacher, Orff method practitioner and former Dr. Clown. The workshop is suitable for all age groups, and no prior musical knowledge is required. Admission is free.
