The exhibition is organized by the Latvian National Centre for Culture (LNKC), which coordinates the inclusion of Latvia’s living traditions in the National Inventory of Intangible Cultural Heritage. The national list is created by the tradition bearers themselves and evaluated by the Intangible Cultural Heritage Council. Over the past four years, 24 values have been included in Latvia’s Intangible Cultural Heritage Inventory, which visitors will be able to explore in the exhibition “Family Table”, designed by scenographer Patrīcija Balņa.

The exhibition will be opened by Gita Lancere.

Admission to the opening event is free.
