

Spring concert “When the snowdrops start to ripple”

On Saturday, 25 February at 16.00 Ventspils Culture Centre will host the concert “When the snowdrops start to ripple”.

Snowdrops are one of the first harbingers of spring. They blossom already in February, when the hint of spring is already in the air and everything around starts to ripple. Snowdrops are one of the first harbingers of spring. They blossom already in February, when the hint of spring is already in the air and everything around starts to ripple. To let spring in sooner, we invite you to a concert with the Riga Stradins University Mixed Choir “Rīga” (conductors Evita Taranda, Zane Zilberte), Ventspils Mixed Choir “Līvzeme” (conductor Astra Plostniece, concertmaster Daina Salmiņa), students of the vocal department of the MIKC Ventspils Music High School (teachers Gatis Poriņš, Rinalds Kandalincevs, concertmaster Irina Kušnirenko) and the flute quartet of the MIKC Ventspils Music High School (teacher Aina Lodziņa).

Tickets are EUR 3.

Pre-sale at all “Bīlešu paradīze” box offices and online