

4th anniversary of the Concert Hall “LATVIJA”.

Participating:

Ksenija Sidorova (accordion),
Aigars Reinis (organ),
Reinis Zariņš (piano).

At the four-year anniversary concert of the “Latvija” Concert Hall, accordionist Ksenija Sidorova, pianist Reinis Zariņš and organist Aigars Reinis – musicians with international musical experience and recognition, multiple winners of the Grand Music Prize, will form an unprecedented trio of keyboard instruments, in which you will hear not only the sound of an accordion and a concert piano, but also an acoustic organ and a 470i upright piano.

World-renowned Latvian artists will perform a newly created concert program, which will feature both important pearls of world classical music, as well as several bright new works and arrangements by contemporary Latvian composers. Composer Rihards Dubra, teacher of Ventspils Music High School, saxophonist and composer Aigars Raumanis composes new compositions for the concert program, but at the end of the concert, a version of the composition “Give, Gods” by composer Raimonds Tīgula, created especially for this event, will be played. The concert is organised by SIA “Kurzemes filharmonija” and supported by the Ventspils State City Municipality.
