

Illusion Show “Edžus the Illusionist in Water” in Ventspils

The illusion show “Edžus the Illusionist in Water” will surprise everyone with tricks unseen in the Baltic States. Unique performances – escaping from a water box, stand-up comedy, sleight of hand tricks, hypnosis, witty psychological games with the audience and many other miraculous events. With a show full of surprises, suspense and humour, Illusionist Edžus will delight audiences in several Latvian cities – at Ventspils Culture Centre on 15 October at 18.00. 18.00.

Hanging upside down for almost an hour at a height of 40 metres, watched live by several thousand people, Illusionist Edžus announces an exciting illusion show tour across Latvia. This autumn, audiences will be treated to new and surprising tricks never before seen in the Baltic States.

The Illusionist, who is followed by more than 270 000 people on TikTok and whose name is included in the Guinness Book of World Records, will show illusions that will amaze everyone in the audience.

“I was inspired by some of the world’s most famous illusionists like Harry Houdini, David Blaine, David Copperfield and others to create this show so that after the evening everyone could be satisfied with having a great time,” says Illusionist Edžus.

“I will demonstrate escaping from a water box, stand-up comedy, sleight of hand tricks, hypnosis, witty psychological games with the audience and I will try to amaze people in many other ways!”- continues Illusionist Edžus. The show will also feature the great drummer Sanijs Bondars, who will refresh the show with a colossal percussion accompaniment.
