

Saint Nicholas Day at the Cat's Mill

On Saturday, December 9, from 12:00-2:00 p.m., the castle of the Livonian Order will have Nicholas Day at the Cat Mill.

Piltene music school students and Liepāja Beztēmata traveling circus take part. There will be musical performances, cat tales, dwarf workshops, gingerbread and apples baked in the hearth of the castle!

Entrance with museum entrance tickets, but if you draw a cat and bring it to the event on Saturday, your drawing will be like an entrance ticket. After that, among all the works of art, we will draw one and reward it!
