

Daile Theatre performance “Eurydice”

Daile Theatre performance “Eurydice”. Director: Anna Abalihina. The most unforgettable love story about Orpheus and Eurydice in the contemporary vision of the playwright Sarah Ruhl, where the focus is directly on Eurydice, who in the underworld not only loses but also finds her freedom, voice, and identity. The poet Jānis Elsbergs has translated and adapted the playwright’s text into Latvian. In addition, the creative team of the performance has made a movement score based on physical theatre aesthetics.
