A bittersweet comedy in two acts.

Playwright: Mārtins Makdona

Director: Dž. Dž. Džilindžers

Cast: Inese Kučinska, Mārtiņš Kalīta, Kaspars Gods (for this role, the 2021/2022 “Spēlmaņu nakts” award in the nomination “Supporting Actor of the Year”), Artūrs Irbe

Martina Makdonas play is a story about a toxic relationship between a mother and daughter. The two live in the small Irish village of Linen, spending their days in an endless routine, living in reproaches towards each other. “Sometimes I dream that... anything. Anything that would be different from now,” says Maureen, hoping to break free one day... Until one day, Pato appears in the village, giving true hope for happiness...
