Ivo Fomina’s concert tour “One More Turn” will be an exciting musical adventure that will delight not only the singer’s many existing fans but also new listeners! At these concerts, you will hear not only Fomina’s new and yet unheard songs from his upcoming album, including the current hit “Red Lines,” but also special pieces that haven’t been performed at the singer’s concerts in over 20 years. The audience will witness a unique journey, where these wonderful and significant songs for the singer will come to life in a new sound. Together with Ivo, his band will take the stage – Roberts Dinters – guitar, keys, Kristaps Eihvalds – bass, and Ēriks Hanzovskis – drums. The evening will be especially filled with surprises – several concerts will also feature previously unannounced special guests. You will hear several new acoustic versions of familiar songs, which will allow you to rediscover well-known tracks and delve deeper into their messages, which have always been significant and emotionally charged in Ivo’s songs. Of course, the concert will also feature Ivo’s legendary golden hits “Nothing Ends,” “Birds Without Wings,” “She Cries,” “We Live in Fairytales,” and many more. These tracks, which have already earned an irreplaceable place in the hearts of listeners, will this time be performed with new energy, allowing each concertgoer to experience a special moment where these legendary songs become a bridge between the past and the future. Each song in the concert will be another turn, behind which the audience will find an ever-new, powerful, and exciting musical adventure! At the concert venue, you will be able to purchase Ivo’s latest music albums, best song compilation CDs and vinyl records, as well as a special song lyrics book, which will help you better understand the messages of Ivo’s songs and give you the opportunity to sing along throughout the concert!
