On July 31 at 6:00 PM, a warm and significant event will take place at the “Jūras vārti” theater house – the 30th anniversary concert of the pop studio “Jūras akmentiņi.” This event will be a beautiful reunion and a shared journey through three decades of creativity, adventure, and music.

The concert promises to be especially emotional and diverse – the audience will have the opportunity to enjoy songs from various stages of the pop studio's development, watch video memories, hear stories and heartfelt greetings, and experience the collective music-making of multiple generations of “Jūras akmentiņi.”

Both current and former members of the studio will take the stage, including Edvards Grieze, Roberts Pētersons, Katrīna Bindere-Čodere, Everts Riekstiņš, Kaspars Antess, Laura Lauze, and the band “The Stones.”

Special guest artists – beloved singer Jānis Aišpurs and musician-producer Ingars Viļums.

The evening will be hosted by Līva Bondare and Reinis Reimanis, whose humor and personal memories will help weave the concert into a unified, heartfelt story.

Ticket price: 7 EUR

Tickets available at “Biļešu Paradīze” box offices and online.

See you at the concert!
